The Journal of Correctional Education Index - 1991

Albrecht, Linda E. Decoding and Encoding Life. June, 60-63.

Breslauer, Ardis. Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment System (CASAS): A Design for Effective Assessment in Correctional Education Programs. March, 12-14.

Carter, Dianne. National Needs Assessment Conducted to Determine Juvenile Justice Training and Service Needs. September, 146-147.

DeMaret, W. F. "Nick." Time to Think: Social/Cognitive Skills Programming in Transition in New Mexico. June, 107-110.

DiVito, Robert J. Survey of Mandatory Education Policies in State Penal Institutions. September, 126-132.

Dowling, William D. Learning Disabilities Among Incarcerated Males. December, 180-185.

Eggleston, Carolyn R. Correctional Education Professional Development. March, 16-22.

Elliott, William N., Walters, Glenn D. Coping with Offender Resistance to Psycho-educational Presentations on the Criminal Lifestyle. December,172-177.

Fabiano, Elizabeth A. How Education Can be Correctional and How Corrections Can Be Educational. June, 100-106.

Fleischman, John. Going Online: Creating a New Avenue of Communication for Adult and Correctional Educators. March, 8-10.

Forbes, Marianne A. Special Education in Juvenile Correctional Facilities: A Literature Review. March, 31-35.

Garrido, Vincente, Sanchis, Jose R. The Cognitive Model in the Treatment of Spanish Offenders: Theory and Practice. June, 111-118.

Hamm, Mark S. Batterers Anonymous: Toward a Correctional Education to Control Romantic Violence. June, 64-73.

Knudson, Roger. A National Communications Network for State and Federal Directors of Correctional Education-SpecialNet. March, 4-6.

Love, Glendel D. Consideration of the Inmate Student's Locus of Control for Effective Instructional Leadership. March, 36-41.

Marsters, David. Teaching in Prison: A Collection of Thoughts. December, 164-166.

Merren, John. Crime, Social Education, and the Twenty-first Century. June, 50-55.

Moran, Patrick M. Special Education and Transition Services in a Detention Center School. September, 152-158.

Novotny, Adrian S., Seifert, Roger G., Werner, David R. Collective Learning: A Pro-Social Teaching Strategy for Prison Education. June, 80-85.

Pearson, James. Enhancing Vocabulary and Spelling Proficiencies in Prison Education. September, 134-138.

Pell, Claiborne. Keynote Address: Correctional Education Leadership Forum - 1991. September, 124-125.

Platt, John S., Wienke, Wilfred D., Kerns, Allen F., Briscoe, Richard. Situational Assessment: A Valuable Tool for Correctional Educators. December, 188-194.

Rabak, Thomas, Walker, Jan. Envisioning and Creating Change: Project Social Responsibility. June, 94-98.

Rea, Virginia. A Comparison of Scottish and California Prison Education Programs. December, 196-205.

Roby, Patricia C., Dwyer, Helene. Through the Looking Glass, Darkly: Teaching for Thinking. June, 74-78.

Rubenstein, Franklin D. A Facility-wide Approach to Social Skills Training. June, 88-93.

Samenow, Stanton E. Correcting Errors of Thinking in the Socialization of Offenders. June, 56-58.

Tobolowsky, Peggy M., Quinn, James F., Holman, John. Participation of Incarcerated High School Drop-outs in County Jail Programs. September, 142-145.

Townley, Mitch L., Grier, Venise G. A Best Practices Approach to Correctional Special Education: The Habilitation Unit for Developmentally Disabled Offenders. March, 26-30.

Walker, Willis E. Class Response Saint Mary College Graduation, USP Leavenworth, Kansas. September, 140.